

Twin County United Way Partner Agencies

- ☆ Aging & Long Term Care & Resource Center- To maximize the degree of independence and quality of service to individuals who use, as well as agencies that provide, community based services. Our responsibility is managing, planning, coordinating, educating, and advocating for a comprehensive long term care system.
- ☆ Area Agency on Aging- To provide leadership and advocacy and to continue to develop a coordinated service system which maximizes family, community and public resources.
- ☆ Asotin County Food Bank- To provide food to the people of Asotin County and temporary residents on an emergency basis.
- ☆ Boy Scouts of America, Inland Northwest Council- To prepare young people to make ethical and moral choices over their lifetimes by instilling in them the values of the Scout Oath and Law. Our vision is to be recognized as an elite council through leadership, excellent programs, growing involvement and superior customer service.
- ☆ Boys & Girls Clubs of the Lewis Clark Valley- To inspire and enable all young people, especially those from disadvantaged circumstance, to reach full potential by enhancing the social, leadership and character development of our memberships.
- ☆ Community Action Partnership Food Bank- To be the catalyst to end poverty in our community. We believe that all people should have enough money, meaning and relationships in their lives to thrive.
- ☆ Families Together Northwest Region and Parent to Parent- A family support organization that serves families who have a child with an emotional, physical, or developmental disability. Our programs strengthen family unity by meeting the needs of the children with disabilities and their families in the areas of advocacy, self-reliance, empowerment, education, emotional support, recreation and friendship.
- ☆ Girl Scouts, Inland Empire Council- Builds girls of confidence, courage, and character, who make the world a better place.
- ☆ Idaho Legal Aid Services, Inc.- Dedicated to the delivery of high quality advocacy that promotes equal opportunity in all forums for individuals and groups to participate in the social, economic, and legal systems of society.
- ☆ Interlink Volunteers - Faith in Action- To provide volunteers enabling seniors and others to live independently in their own home.
- ☆ Second Judicial District CASA Program, Inc.- To provide an advocate for each abused or neglected child who enters the child protection court system, for the length of the child's case.
- ☆ Special Olympics Idaho- To provide year-round sports training and athletic competition in a variety of Olympic type sports for persons eight years of age and older with mental retardation, giving them continuing opportunities to develop physical fitness, demonstrate courage, experience joy and participate in the sharing of gifts, skills and friendship with their families, other Special Olympics athletes and the community.
- ☆ The Idaho Foodbank provides food, information and supportive services to hungry people through partnerships with non-profit agencies, the food industry, government, volunteers, corporations and individuals by serving as a central clearinghouse for donated and purchased food.
- ☆ Valley Meals on Wheels- To arrange for the preparation of nutritious meals through a contracted agency with dietary supervision, and to actively participate in the development of a volunteer program to deliver meals to the physically/emotionally disadvantaged at a reasonable and minimal cost, enabling those individuals to achieve the highest levels of independent living and dignity possible in the Lewis-Clark Valley.
- ☆ WA-ID Volunteer Center, Inc. (Retired Senior Volunteer Program)- To provide meaningful volunteer opportunities for persons age 55 and older, be the linking agency for volunteers and community needs and to assist in identifying community needs in the areas of intergenerational education programs the environment, public safety and health and human services.
- ☆ Willow Center for Grieving Children, Inc.- Provides loving support to children and teens, ages 3-18, grieving a death.
- ☆ Y.W.C.A. of Lewiston-Clarkston- Dedicated to building a strong community by actively promoting the empowerment of women, the elimination of prejudice and racism, the value of diversity and the right to a life free from violence, poverty and oppression.